WEEKLY STAFF NEWSLETTER: MARCH 7-11, 2016

STUDENT LEARNING

Dr. Seuss day was a big success. Students participated in many different types of learning activities as they celebrated Dr. Seuss and his stories. Student in kindergarten made green eggs and ham and graphed different colored fish. Ms. Maturino read aloud to first and third grade students. Some classrooms decorated their doors in honor of a favorite Dr. Seuss story. All students received a pencil and bookmark honoring the late Dr. Seuss.

PBIS

Our SWIS Data system is providing valuable information regarding student behavior. One of the behavior patterns that has become apparent is the high level of incidents occurring on Fridays. Our students generally start off the week on a positive note and as the week goes on, they begin to make poor choices regarding their behavior. Make sure to revisit the behavior lessons towards the end of the week to remind students to follow the expectations all week.

IEPs are legal documents that need to be followed down to the minutes. This includes services by the RSP, SPED, Speech and Language and any SPED Aides. SPED staff needs to be working directly with students and providing them the services and minutes allotted in the IEP. Any modifications or accommodations for students, as listed in an IEP, need to be followed and implemented throughout the school day. General Education teachers need to be aware of the contents listed in an IEP. If you have a SPED student in your class, please make sure to communicate with Mr. Radillo and/or Ms. Berrin to ensure that these modifications/accommodations are being met. If you have a SPED Aide, make sure he/she is working directly with students at all times.
