WEEKLY STAFF NEWSLETTER: NOVEMBER 16-20, 2015

PBIS (POSITIVE BEHAVIOR SUPPORT)

As part of our First Trimester we will also be honoring students for two specific PBIS expectations: being Respectful and being Responsible. This selection, made by you, should be a student (for each trait) that displays that trait on a daily basis and demonstrates it to his/her peers.

COMMON CORE/ PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

First Trimester Awards will be given out on December 2 and December 3. During these assemblies we will be honoring students for various academic and social recognitions. Academically, we will be honoring your top student in Math, Writing, and Reading. Look at your data and start preparing to choose your top 3 students in this area. Jana will also be presenting AR awards during this time to honor top point earners in each grade. Perfect Attendance for the Trimester will be recognized as well.

WHAT'S NEW AT GABILAN!

RTI was off to a good start this week. I would like to thank everyone for their professionalism in welcoming our Instructional Aides to be a true member of our teaching team. This is a new model for some of them but they have welcomed the challenge with enthusiasm and are eager for this model to succeed. They will continue to be guided by Nathan and Alma. Feel free to give them some positive feedback and guidance/tips when working with your students. Please address any questions/concerns with me.

STUDENT/PARENT/COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

As you hold your Parent Conferences, remember to keep the focus on the student. Be specific in the information you relay to parents, have writing samples, benchmarks, math tests, and any other student work that supports the message you are giving parents. Also, remember to start off with student strengths (every student has one) before you move on to concerns. Give parents an opportunity to share their concerns with you as well. Reinforce that we all want students to be successful and our goal is to do what we can to make that happen.
